

PARENT GROUP PROGRAM MANAGER

POSITION SUMMARY

The Parent Group Program Manager (PGPM) is responsible for the management of the Young Parent Groups program, and provides ongoing and professional supervision to all program staff, interns, and volunteers. The PGPM oversees the development and implementation of service delivery strategies aimed at fostering participants' parenting capacity, increasing social support, connecting families to resources, and providing a safe group environment. Working with the Director of Program Operations, The PGPM develops program plans aimed at achieving outlined outcome objectives, implements quality assurance plans, coordinates the referral to and transition of participants to both internal and external programs and services, monitors the performance of program staff and interns, and maintains data collection systems and processes to support program outcome reporting. The PGPM provides weekly reflective and administrative supervision to staff and intern Parent Group Facilitators, and is available for consultation in case of crisis during service delivery. Responsibilities include the oversight and logistics of all community partner sites where group meetings are held, including working with volunteer site coordinators as well as supervision and training of all volunteer child care workers. The PGPM is also a trained Parent Group Facilitator and delivers direct services to program participants as needed. The PGPM is responsible for the coordination of community outreach activities, and represents the agency at site visits and community meetings as directed. Leadership is aimed toward assuring quality of services, innovating new engagement and service delivery strategies, implementing best practice standards, fulfilling funding requirements, and protecting the integrity and respect of the adolescent families served. This is a full time (40 hours per week), non-exempt, grant funded position.
