

DOULA

ABOUT US:

Teen Parent Connection is a nonprofit organization based in DuPage County, Illinois, dedicated to serving adolescent parents as they navigate the complex responsibilities of both youth and parenthood. Our programs provide comprehensive support to young mothers and fathers – ages 12-22, helping them build strong foundations for themselves and their children.

We also offer evidence-based, school-based education in middle and high schools to reduce the risk of teen pregnancy and support informed decision-making. Since our founding in 1985 by registered nurse Jeanne Altendorf-McLennan and a committed team of community leaders, our mission has remained clear: to empower young families and help them thrive.

POSITION SUMMARY:

The Doula is responsible for initiating and maintaining regular (weekly) contact and support with participant families. The Doula builds trusting relationships with program participants that offer strength-based services for the families in their caseload. The Doula provides community outreach, facilitates prenatal education activities, assists the family in preparing for childbirth through both home visiting and group-based services, and advocates for participant families throughout their pregnancy, including during labor/delivery. As a member of the Doula Team, the Doula will co-facilitate weekly Childbirth Education Classes. These activities will take place primarily within DuPage County in participants' homes, doctor's office, and hospitals. This is a grant funded position and is full time (40 hours per week with some overtime hours for attending participant births) and non-exempt.
